Established in 1985 Wingate Avenue Community Centre (WACC) is a not for profit organisation run by a Committee of Management dedicated to engaging and strengthening our community by offering a diverse range of social, physical and educational programs.

The centre is located within the centre of the Ascot Vale Public Housing Estate and has become an important “hub” of community participation. The open and warm environment is reflected in every aspect of the organisation. Our Staff and volunteers are passionate and creative people known for their welcoming and understanding communication.

Volunteering at Wingate offers an opportunity to gain valuable work experience, learn new skills, build confidence and enjoy being part of a dynamic environment an within WACC you will be a highly valued community.

As a volunteer member of our team. We have a range of volunteer opportunities within the organisation including supporting our festivals, being a tutor in Learning and language program, supporting our men’s, women’s and young people’s programs and daily operations of the centre such as administration tasks.

Wingate Avenue Community Centre is a growing and vibrant place where being a volunteer enriches both the life of our community and their own.

Volunteering has kept me vital, full of ideas and I've met some great people along the way. I've socialised, talked, cooked and eaten my way towards common ground and found that we all just want the same things...and in the end its harmony and contentment we all 'chase', and I'm happy to say that's what my experience is! Volunteering has 'pulled me out of my cave' so to speak' and allowed me to be of value to others.”
